CATHEDRAL OF THE HOLY FAMILY

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

NOVEMBER: MONTH OF ALL SOULS

During this month of November the Church acts like the good Mother she is by directing many suffrages to God for the souls in Purgatory. She invited us to pray about the meaning of our life in the light of eternity.

The liturgy reminds us that the souls in Purgatory eagerly await this work of charity engaged in by their brothers and sisters on earth. These prayers can help to shorten a soul's time of purification. We see, therefore, that death does not undo the bonds of Christian community. As a matter of fact, death can serve to perfect those bonds. Union with Christ is stronger than any physical separation. The Holy Spirit binds all Christians together. The love and fidelity of the Church on earth wins joy and relief for those souls who long to enter into eternal bliss. This stream of charity rises up to the benefit of the souls in Purgatory even when we are distracted. Yet when we make sure to direct these prayers for this intentions, we can work an even greater good.

The Second Vatican Council has declared: Fully conscious of this communion of the whole Mystical Body of Jesus Christ, the pilgrim Church from the very first ages of the Christian religion has cultivated with great piety the memory of the dead, and because it is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins, also offers suffrages for them. As St. Ephraim, an early Doctor of the Church, has observed: If the army of Maccabeus was able to expiate the sins of their fallen comrades, imagine how much more supernatural good is done by the priests of the Son through their prayers and holy offerings!

The first Christians were so accustomed to praying for the dead that this feature was soon included in the Holy Mass. Accordingly, we read in the First Eucharist Prayer: Remember, Lord, those who have died and have gone before us marked with the sign of faith, especially those for whom we now pray, N. and N. May these, and all who sleep in Christ, find in your presence light, happiness and peace. In the Second Eucharistic Prayer we have this petition: Remember our brothers and sisters who have gone to their rest in the hope of rising again; bring them and all the departed into the light of your presence. This prayer for the suffering Church in Purgatory seems to have come down to us from the Roman liturgy to judge by some of the expressions used in the Latin text. The opening words of some of these can be seen in inscriptions on tombs in the Catacombs. This teaching, that we the living have the power to intercede for the dead, has always been held by believers. It was solemnly declared a truth of the Faith by the Second General Council of Lyons in 1274.

Let us take advantage of today's time of meditation to pray for the souls of the faithful departed, souls that continue to depend on our assistance. Let us examine the quality of our prayer for these souls. We should remember that this is a wonderful work of mercy that is most pleasing to the Lord.

TOFM

Time Out for Moms

Time Out For Moms (TOFM) is a Catholic enrichment group for women and mothers of all ages, featuring weekly gatherings of women from many parishes held at the Cathedral of the Holy Family. This Fall, TOFM is exploring the Bible characters Martha and Mary (Luke 10:38-42). We'll have great speakers, snacks, fellowship, and childcare for children 6 weeks and up from 9:15 am - 11:15 am on Tuesday mornings at Holy Family Cathedral from October 15 - November 26 (no session on October 22). Registration is open now until October 8 (or until spots fill up). Cost is $100 and there is financial aid available - our sponsors would love to help if you need it! Please visit our website at tofm.ca or email us at tofmsaskatoonsk@gmail.com for more info or to register. We hope to see you there!

Holy Family Prayer

Most Beloved Sacred Heart of Jesus, As you are the Father's Beloved Son in whom he is well pleased, May we serve others in love as we have been served in love.

Most Blessed Immaculate Heart of Mary As All generations call you blessed through your fiat, May we too move with haste to share the gift of God's love to others.

Most Betrothed Chaste Heart of St. Joseph As you took Jesus and Mary into your home, May we foster free, faithful, fruitful and total love in our family.

Holy Family of Nazareth, grant that our families too may be places of communion and prayer, authentic schools of the Gospel and small domestic churches, Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, Graciously hear our prayer. Amen.
